

Inspiring Teacher of English Teaching Award (2022)

A national award for teachers of English in Singapore schools

THE STRAITS TIMES

The Straits Times and the Speak Good English Movement, with the support of the Ministry of Education, present the Inspiring Teacher of English – Teaching Award. This award recognises teachers who have been instrumental in igniting a love for English and are effective in teaching their students to communicate better.

We are looking for teachers who:

- exemplify the use of good spoken and written English;
- promote learning-focused interaction during English lessons; and
- choose pedagogies appropriate to learners' readiness, interests and learning profiles.

If you have a teacher in mind, please complete the nomination form with reasons to support your nomination.

This award is open to all in-service teachers of English Language, including teachers of Literature in English and General Paper, from primary, secondary and integrated programme schools, centralised institute and junior colleges.

All students, their parents and fellow teachers are invited to send in nominations to the principal of the nominee's school by 6pm on 28 March 2022. (Please refer to "Rules and Terms of the Award" on the last page.)

THE STRAITS TIMES

Rules and Terms of the Award:

1. Nominations will open on 14 February 2022. Nomination and endorsement forms can be downloaded from www.goodenglish.org.sg.
2. Nomination forms prepared by students / their parents / fellow teachers / HODs should be submitted to the principal of the nominee's school for collation and endorsement no later than 6pm on 28 March 2022. Supporting documents, including thank you messages from students or their parents, press reports and other relevant materials, can be included.
3. Heads of Department (HOD)/Subject Heads (SH)/Level Heads (LH) can be nominated for the Teaching Award only if they are not eligible for the Leadership Award. To be eligible for the Leadership Award, teachers should have led school-based programmes for English Language, Literature in English or General Paper for at least two years in the school in the capacity of HOD/SH/LH.
4. Teachers who were previously nominated can be nominated again after a lapse of one year on condition that they continued to teach English in that year. For example, teachers who were nominated in 2020 could be re-nominated in 2022.
5. Endorsement forms must be signed by the principal of the nominee's school. A nominee will not be considered for the award if the principal does not submit a write-up as part of the endorsement requirements for the nominee.
6. Schools should submit both the nomination and endorsement forms to the Speak Good English Movement by 5pm on 8 April 2022 via email to nhb_speakgoodenglishmovement@nhb.gov.sg with the following subject: Inspiring Teacher of English Award 2022.
7. Classroom observations will be conducted in July/August 2022 for shortlisted nominees. Winners will be announced in October 2022.
8. A maximum of 10 "Inspiring Teacher of English – Teaching and Leadership Awards" will be presented every year. Winners may come from primary, secondary and integrated programme schools, centralised institute and junior colleges. The judges reserve the right to award fewer than 10 prizes.
9. The award winners should be in service at the time they receive the award and must be teaching English Language, Literature in English or General Paper during the year of nomination.
10. Each winner will receive a $2,000 cash award and a trophy. Their approach to teaching English, where relevant, will be published in Little Red Dot and IN.
11. All endorsed nominees will receive a Singapore Association for Applied Linguistics membership.
