NOMINATIONS OPEN FOR THE INSPIRING TEACHER OF ENGLISH AWARD 2023
(Nomination Period: 1 February to 10 April 2023)

Students, parents and teachers are invited to nominate extraordinary teachers of English Language, Literature in English or General Paper for the Inspiring Teacher of English Award 2023 from 1 February to 10 April. This award recognises teachers who demonstrate a passion for English and are effective in teaching their students to communicate better.

Jointly presented by the Speak Good English Movement and The Straits Times, with support from the Ministry of Education for the 16th year, the Inspiring Teacher of English Award has two categories – the Teaching Award and the Leadership Award.

The Inspiring Teacher of English – Teaching Award recognises teachers who have been instrumental in igniting a love for English and are effective in teaching their students to communicate well.

Students, parents and teachers are invited to nominate teachers for the Teaching Award. The nomination forms must be submitted to the school Principal for final endorsement.

The Inspiring Teacher of English – Leadership Award acknowledges Heads of Department, Subject Heads and Level Heads who are effectively leading their departments and schools in the development and implementation of an effective English Language/Literature in English/General Paper curriculum.

Principals are invited to submit nominations for the Leadership Award by completing a nomination form with a brief recommendation for the nominated teacher.

All winners will receive a cash award of $2,000 and a trophy at an award ceremony in October 2023. All nominees endorsed by their Principals, will also receive a certificate and a Singapore Association for Applied Linguistics membership valid for two years.

About the Inspiring Teacher of English Award

The Inspiring Teacher of English Award acknowledges educators who have been instrumental in igniting a love for the English language and are effective in helping their students speak and write better. These teachers are passionate about making English interesting and relevant, and are innovative in engaging their students in the language learning process. The Award salutes these teachers for their constant efforts to improve themselves so that their students and schools can benefit.

Presented by the Speak Good English Movement and The Straits Times, with support from the Ministry of Education, the award has recognised a total of 127 Inspiring Teacher of English awardees (as of 2022) since its inception in 2008.

About the Speak Good English Movement

Launched in 2000, the Speak Good English Movement encourages Singaporeans to speak standard English, with the help of partners who run interesting programmes and develop learning content for the Movement. For more information, visit www.goodenglish.org.sg.

About the Ministry of Education

The Ministry of Education (MOE) formulates and implements education policies on education structure, curriculum, pedagogy, and assessment. It oversees the management and development of Government-funded schools, the Institute of Technical Education, polytechnics and universities.
